HAPPY EASTER-APRIL 12, 2020

Our Priests, Liturgical Team and Wardens Wish all our dear Parishioners a BLESSED EASTER.

The story is told about Albert Einstein, the brilliant physicist of Princeton University in the early 20th century. Einstein was traveling from Princeton on a train, and when the conductor came down the aisle to punch the passengers' tickets, Einstein couldn't find his. He looked in his vest pocket, he looked in his pants pocket, he looked in his briefcase, but there was no ticket. The conductor was gracious; "Not to worry, Dr. Einstein, I know who you are, we all know who you are, and I'm sure you bought a ticket." As the conductor moved down the aisle, he looked back and noticed Einstein on his hands and knees, searching under the seat for his ticket. The conductor returned to Einstein; "Dr. Einstein, Dr. Einstein, don't worry. I know who you are. You don't need a ticket, I'm sure you bought one." Einstein arose and said, "Young man, I too know who I am; what I don't know is where I am going." And that is the Good News of Easter; that we know where we are going. We have been told by the Savior that his life and death has promised us life eternal.

(Steven Molin, Elated....Deflated. Quoted by Fr. Kyalala)

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY: April 19 Next Sunday, April 19 will be Divine Mercy Sunday. I ask you to celebrate this Divine Mercy next Sunday. Place a picture or an icon of Divine Mercy on a table and light a candle while you watch the Sunday Mass on live streaming.

“My daughter, love has brought Me here, and love keeps Me here. My daughter, if you knew what great merit and reward is earned by one act of pure love for Me, you would die of joy. I am saying this that you may constantly unite yourself with Me through love, for this is the goal of the life of your soul. This act is an act of the will. Know that a pure soul is humble. When you lower and empty yourself before My majesty, I then pursue you with My graces and make use of My omnipotence to exalt you.”

— St. Maria Faustina Kowalska, p.244
